

INDIANA

TAX CONFERENCE

COMPETITIVENESS AND SIMPLIFICATION

TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 2014

Tony Robinson

Panel: Corporate tax

Biography

Tony Robinson, a Principal based in Ernst & Young LLP's Chicago office, has over 14 years in the public accounting field. He works as the company's Midwest Indirect/State & Local Tax Leader. Robinson has extensive experience with multistate income and franchise taxation, including projects such as supply chain, mergers and acquisition due diligence, tax provisions and the Lookback Review process (corporate income and franchise tax return review).

He has extensive experience in the retail & consumer products industry and financial institution industry with additional experience in the service and insurance industries. Robinson worked as Senior Manager at Arthur Andersen LLP from 1996 until 2002.

Robinson received a B.A. in Political Science and Accounting from Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania in 1993 and received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1996.